

Morgan Stanley Pays out $7.2 Billion in Bonuses

58% of Investment Banking Revenue Paid Out

Houston, TX – January 21, 2010 – Winning Strategies Network (www.winningstrategies.net) reported today that Morgan Stanley (MS) announced yesterday that $7.2 billion in bonuses would be paid to employees. The Financial Times reported this as “58% of investment banking revenues – a high ratio by historical standards.” Winning Strategies Senior Editor Tim Connolly commented, “Shareholders of Morgan Stanley and others such as Goldman Sachs (GS) deserve better treatment and more of the profits of these firms. While shareholders bear all the risks, senior management receives the majority of the cash flow. Perhaps the shareholders of these companies need to hold tea parties of their own to retake control of their investments. We will discuss this live in depth on Winning Strategies this Friday, January 22, 2010 from 9:00 a.m.-11:00 a.m. EST.” Texas Billionaire Sam Wyly will also appear this Friday on Winning Strategies.
