

Naked Short Selling by International Crime Syndicates to be Rebroadcast on “Tim Connolly’s Winning Strategies” June 11, 2010 at 10:00 a.m. ET

Houston, TX – June 10, 2010 – Due to numerous listener requests, Tim Connolly's Winning Strategies www.winningstrategies.net will rebroadcast “Naked Short Selling by International Crime Syndicates”. The show features Don Clark, a 25 year veteran of the FBI and former Special Agent in Charge of the Houston FBI Office and securities fraud litigation specialist attorney Wes Christian, this Friday June 11th at 10:00 a.m. ET. The show will feature cases involving the international criminal elements conspiring in naked short selling throughout the world. The German government’s recent ban of naked short selling has ignited international concerns of billions in shareholder losses and the overall negative effects of naked shorting on the world economic recovery. Tim Connolly’s guests will discuss specific cases of criminal conspiracy ranging from the USA to offshore money havens, through Russia and beyond. Call in live and toll free with your questions at 800-336-2225, listen live at www.winningstrategies.net or email during the show to talk@winningstrategies.net.

Previous guests of Tim Connolly’s Winning Strategies (formerly Corporate Strategies) have included former SEC Chairman Arthur Levitt, Changewave’s Tobin Smith, CNBC “Mad Money” Host Jim Cramer, Gamco’s Mario Gabelli, Muriel Siebert, U.S. Senator and Presidential Candidate John McCain, Enterprise Products CEO Dan Duncan, Celgene’s CEO John Jackson, Landry’s CEO Tilman Fertitta, former Compaq CEO Eckard Pfeiffer, Money Manager Louis Navellier, and many others.

About Don Clark

Don Clark entered duty as a Special Agent of the FBI on November 7, 1976 and served in Miami, New York, Washington D.C., Los Angeles, Newark, San Antonio and Houston. His assignments as an investigative agent and manager in the FBI included foreign counterintelligence, counterterrorism, violent crimes, organized crime/drug and other FBI investigative programs.

Mr. Clark’s many assignments included, Assistant Special Agent in Charge of the Criminal Division New York Office, Violent Crimes Program in 1991. In January 1994, Mr. Clark was assigned to manage all counterterrorism investigations in the New York Office and later in June 1994, he was designated Special Agent in Charge of the Criminal Division of the New York FBI Office. In December 1994, he was named Special Agent in Charge of the San Antonio FBI Division. On July 2, 1996, Director Freeh appointed Mr. Clark as the Special Agent in Charge of the Houston Division, one of the FBI’s Top Ten Field Divisions, the position he held until his retirement.

About Wes Christian

Mr. Christian has devoted a majority of his practice to complex commercial litigation, including several substantial cases involving, securities fraud, intellectual property, wrongful death, medical malpractice, and fraud in real estate. Mr. Christian leads a consortium of a number of distinguished law firms across the country pursuing several leading brokerage and clearing firms in six states for naked short selling, stock fraud and manipulation, and seeking in excess of $9 billion in damages.

For information on booking of interviews, call Marcy Dorotik at 713-621-2737 or email marcy@winningstrategies.net.